

The Press.
ISSUED WEEKLY.
R. C. WALKER, Publisher.
ONE YEAR ONE DOLLAR
Will the Courier-Journal take to the woods again so soon as free silver is mentioned?

Old No. 4, seemed to have done business at the old stand, and evidently noticed No. 3, to join her.

The Hell and Edd has evidenced the fact that this is not the thousand years during which his Satanic majesty is to be claimed.

Bradley carried Crittenden by 454; Taylor got only 374. There is some "balm in Gilead," but, confidentially, the healing powers in this case is not what it might be.

We believe that it was T. J. Yates who said a majority of the Democrats of Tennessee would vote for Brown, Dycusburg Democrats bore the brunt of the battle and acquitted themselves like the loyal men they are.

The First District Educational Association will convene in Marion December 1, and will be in session two days. This district is composed of the foremost educators of the district and Marion will give them a royal welcome.

John Young Brown has trampled the love of the Kentucky Democracy under his feet, and as the days go by the contempt of the Republicans for him will grow. He loses old friends and merits the suspicion of the men into whose hands he played.

Upon one occasion the lowly Nazarene announced that he could call the legions of heaven to his aid, but his mission was to set up the kingdom of love, not war. In the Philippines and in the Transvaal our boastful christian nations are taking the other horn of the dilemma.

And there stood old Bella Mines at her lovely old place in her lovely old style. All others may flicker, but her flame burns steadily. In good as well as in evil report, it is as well as restful times, she is the same old Fells Mines. She is the one ray of sunshine through the cloud that drifted over Crittenden Tuesday.

Two of the most unjustifiable wars in the history of modern times are being waged by two of the most highly civilized nations on earth against two of the weakest nations, whose desires are simply the privilege of governing themselves. Under the cloak of christianity greed stalks about in individual and national alike.

From the amount of trouble Gov. Bradley is having to get a hold, we judge that he finds in his own words, "it is a hard job to choke off that d-d Deboe." A Crittenden county politician may be shot or drowned or disposed of in various other ways, but there has never been one choked off yet, Governor.

The secret ballot may be a good thing, but it does not prevent frauds when they are desired. Out of all the new plans, and new laws and new schemes comes the fact that its "new man," in the New Testament sense, that we must have before the old Adam ceases to stalk abroad.

Stop Coughing

Every cough makes your throat more raw and irritable. Every cough congests the lining membrane of your lungs. Cease tearing your throat and lungs in this way. Put the parts at rest and give them a chance to heal. You will need some help to do this, and you will find it in

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

From the first dose the quiet rest begin; the tickling in the throat ceases; the spasm weakens; the cough disappears. Do not wait for pneumonia and consumption but cut short your cold without delay. Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plaster should be over the lungs of every person troubled with a cough. Write to the Doctor.

Address, Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

GOEBEL ELECTED.

His Majority is Good and Safe
Legislature Democratic

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—The Associated Press claims Goebel's election to night (at midnight) at from 5,000 to 8,400.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 8.—I have advice enough from all over the State to say that the Goebel Democratic ticket is elected by not less than 7,000 majority, and have working majority in each House. In God we trust.
William Goebel.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 8.—(8 p. m.)—Goebel elected on face of returns Legislature safely Democratic.
J. C. S. Blackburn.

As we go to press the news indicates the election of Goebel and the entire ticket by a safe majority. Brown received something like 15,000 votes. The Republican committee last night still claimed Taylor's election, but the late returns did not justify the claim.

Louisville, Nov. 8.—Returns were never so slow in coming in for Kentucky. The blue grass district is strong for Goebel. Some of the western counties are disappointing. The majority in the second (Owensboro) district for Goebel is 1,902. This district gave Bryan about 6,000 majority.

Returns from two-thirds of the state show Goebel has a plurality of 4,100. Six counties in the eleventh district the banner republican district, give Taylor 300 more votes than Bailey, republican, in 1897. Half of the district gives Goebel 300 less than Shackelford, democrat, in 1896.

Half of the first, the banner democratic district, and half of the eleventh, the banner republican district, are yet to be heard from.

Jefferson county, in which Louisville is situated, gives Taylor 2,500 plurality.

Urey Woodson, Democratic National Committeeman for Kentucky.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 8.—Kentucky is safely democratic. I will carry the state by 3,000 to 5,000 plurality.

The legislature is democratic, which will insure the election of J. C. S. Blackburn to succeed William Lindsay in the United States senate.

William Goebel.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 8.—The counties so far reported give Goebel a majority of 7,077. The counties unreported, gave in 1897, a net Republican majority of 6,158.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—(12:00 a. m.)—Senator Blackburn announces that Goebel and the entire state ticket wins easily by 12,000 majority.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8, a. m.—Fifth district, which embraces Louisville and Jefferson county, give Taylor a majority of 2,700. This district gave Bradley 14,000 in 1895, and McKinley 15,000 in 1896.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8, a. m.—Republican committee claims the state by 25,000.

MARYLAND.
Baltimore, Md., Nov. 8.—Democrats carry Maryland by 10,000 majority.

NEW JERSEY.
New York, Nov. 8.—New Jersey has been carried by the Republicans by from 18,000 to 25,000 majority.

OHIO.
Cincinnati, Nov. 8.—Nas' Rep. lican, governor, by 35,000.

UNCLE JEFF

Will Cast His Vote for Jo. C. S. Blackburn.
HE WINS BY 85 MAJORITY

Mr. T. J. Nickel is elected to the legislature from Crittenden and Livingston counties by a majority of 85. Nickels carries Livingston by 454 majority, and Blackburn Crittenden by 369.
